

On November 5, U.S. citizens will choose new leaders.

Mark your calendar. It's a Tuesday -- less than two weeks away. Make plans now to get to the polls on Election Day. Don't let anything stand between you and your right to vote.

Our current lawmakers were chosen by the smallest number of voters in decades. Their legacy includes busted pensions and a broken economy.

Over 2 million manufacturing jobs have disappeared since 2000. That's 60,000 good-paying jobs every month! How much more can we afford?

Union members and their families represent one of the largest, most powerful voting blocs in the country. Together, we have the power to choose America's leaders.

On November 5, be sure to take a friend, family member or fellow worker with you when you vote.
